Southern California and the City of Anaheim will be the place to be for the "BEST SHOW IN PUBLIC WORKS" in August 2012!

The American Public Works Association, a national group of more than 26,000 public works professionals, is the world leader in public works advocacy and education. APWA offers its members a diversified range of support tools, some of which include our Southern California chapter newsletter, national and state chapter web sites apwa.net and SouthernCA.apwa.net; and education and training programs on-site and via teleconferences and the internet.

As host Chapter, APWA Southern California will be responsible for providing support for many Congress and Exposition activities, some of which include food and entertainment at the Sunday night Meet and Greet, exhibit hall prizes for attendees, speaker gifts, volunteer supplies, and a Southern California hospitality area.

2012 Congress sponsors gain premier exposure to key public works leaders and decision makers and are identified as valuable partners with the public works industry. Become a sponsor today!
